

Hello,

My name is Mirkos. With my partner Shannon, we undertook one of your day tours to Soweto around December 17th.

We had Jabu as our guide. He was quite good and knowledgeable and his love and passion for Soweto really shone through. He may remember us for our adopted names of Thulani (myself, the quiet and peaceful one) and Zodeka (Shannon's, the gentle one, or not-so-gentle as i like to call her!).

We had one of the best days of our Africa trip with your company. Please excuse our ignorance by my saying that we had the idea of Soweto of being a no-go area. We stand corrected as we saw that despite its problems, Soweto has a lot to offer. We were encouraged by two things: the Lonely Planet and by your pamphlet at our hostel (Jacaranda Lodge, Observatory).

We wanted to continue the rapport that we established with all of you, namely Jabulani, Lindi, and Mama K. Her food was absolutely tasty and we were kicking ourselves for not knowing about the ability of staying in Soweto for a few days. Shannon wrote down some of the recipes and we will give them a good try very soon. We are thankful for your hospitality and generosity. We definitely have you in mind for 2010!!

Shannon and I wanted to express our warmest wishes for this holiday season. May you be surrounded by good food, great people and the love and support of all your loved ones.

Yours sincerely,

Mirkos and Shannon
